

1002

ROBERT SAY, Doctor of Divinity, Provost of Oriel Colledge, and Vice-Chancellour of the Univerfity of Oxford, to all whom it may concern, Greeting. Whereas the Statutes of the Univerfity require certain Scholaſtical, and decent Habits, beſitting every Perſon in his ſeverall Degree to be uſed, and put on, when he ſhall appear in Publick, eſpecially at Sermons and other Scholaſtical Exercifes. And whereas, for ſome months laſt paſt, there hath been almoſt a total neglect, throughout the whole Univerfity herein, contrary to the Statutes, and good Diſcipline of the ſame, We therefore (conſidering the diſhonour and ſuffering of the Univerfity by this apparent neglect; & the many inconveniences which may enſue thereupon, if We ſhall not uphold that Laudable Uſe and Cuſtome) doe Peremptorily, and expreſſly Require and Command Every Graduate to appear in his Formalities, at Sermons, and elſewhere, according to the Statutes therein provided. As alſo Under-Graduates to wear ſuch Gowns and Caps, as are limited, and expreſſed for their condition. And that theſe commands may work the ſpeedier redreſs; We profeſs to Execute the rigour of the Statutes upon ſuch as ſhall offend therein. Given under my hand this Thirteenth day of February 1664.

ROBERT SAY Vice-Chan.